

Milton Local History Group

A Walk around Old Milton

Title: Coulson Family

Circa: Before the war

Location: Cambridge Road

Description: The Coulson family outside their house.

The windows at the bottom of the house protruded out and they were used like greenhouses to grow plants

Title: Rose Cottage

Circa: 1936

Location: Butt Lane

Description: Harold Easy's Cows heading for Lyndhurst Farm

Title: Charles Day's van (Charles Day was the milkman)

Circa: 1935

Location: Butt Lane

Description: View to east down Butt Lane

Title: High Street

Circa: 1930

Description: Looking north up High Street. White Horse on right and Lion and Lamb on left and in the distance the Red House

Title: Milton Laundry

Circa: 1980

Location: High Street

Description: Dezra Gooding, Sue Linger, Joyce Clark standing by van

Title: High Street

Circa: 1930

Description: Looking north from Lion and Lamb. Three Tuns in background. Scout meetings were held in cottage at back of picture. Fiddler Coulson the road sweeper can be seen standing outside his cottage. The chimney in back ground was where they brewed beer at Jolly Brewers.

Title: Village pump, Smithy, Memorial and the Village Pond

Circa: 1930

Location: High Street looking North

Description: Fiddler Coulson lived in one of the cottages on the right

Title: Waggon & Horses Public House

Circa: 1930

Location: High Street to Hungry Hill and Ivy Cottage

Description: Waggon and Horses with delivery van looking north

Jack Almond lived in cottage nearest to Waggon and Cyril Buck lived in the next cottage.

Title: Old Waggon and Horses Pub and Jack Starlings Cycle Shop

Circa: 1925

Location: High Street

Description: Jack Starling died in 1938

Title: War Memorial

Circa: 1930

Location: Looking north up High Street

Description: Waggon and Horses and Black Smith in the background

Title: Queen Ann Lodge

Circa: 1930

Location: Fen Road

Description: Memorial in background, from Fen Road looking west.

Once believed to be the Greyhound Pub. Closed in 1880s

Title: The Poplars

Circa: 1930

Location: Church Lane

Description: Looking north towards the church

Title: Church Lane

Circa: 1930

Description: View to the north east up Church Lane looking towards the church.

Polly Cooper lived in centre cottage. Evelyn Cooper nee Starling's grandparents lived in end cottage and great grandparents in cottage nearest the church and 1889.

Title: Fen Road

Circa: 1910

Description: Looking east to village school, school house and Milton House.

The school consisted of two rooms and the last head teacher was Mr Faulkner

Title: War Memorial

Circa:

Location: Coles Road

Description: War Memorial being erected in its new position in Coles Road near Milton Stores and

Post Office